

East African energy storage battery companies

Overview

Which battery brand is most popular in East Africa?

6. Chloride Exide (Kenya) Chloride Exide is East Africa's most established battery brand. Though traditionally known for lead-acid batteries, they are expanding into lithium-ion and hybrid storage for rural and peri-urban energy needs.

Are East Africa's battery manufacturers a Chinese onslaught?

Battery manufacturers in East Africa want their governments to protect them and consumers from what they are calling a Chinese onslaught. This follows the collapse of East Africa's biggest battery maker, Kenya-based Associated Battery Manufacturers (ABM), attributed by industry players to cheap imports from China.

Could locally produced batteries be a solution to Africa's energy crisis?

"With Eskom's new 1.4 GWh energy storage project, locally produced batteries may provide a good opportunity for a true local solution to an urgent need," says Naicker. "The lack of affordable batteries has prohibited the mass-penetration of much-needed energy storage solutions throughout Africa," he adds.
